108470 COMMON PLEAS COURT E CIVIL C.P.-NOT JUV, DOM OR PRO
MICHAEL MOBLEY, ET AL. v RONALD JAMES

Affirmed.

Eileen A. Gallagher, P.J., Mary Eileen Kilbane, J., and Michelle J. Sheehan, J., concur.

KEY WORDS: Summary judgment; Civ.R. 56; fraud; sewer backups; caveat emptor; "as is" sale; R.C. 5302.30; residential property disclosure form; home inspection; justifiable reliance.

Trial court did not err in granting summary judgment in favor of seller on buyers' fraud claim. Based on information buyers received from their home inspector during the pre-sale home inspection, there was no genuine issue of material fact that buyers were on notice that there was a history of sewer backups affecting both the property specifically and the neighborhood generally and that there was a risk of additional sewer backups affecting the property in the future such that buyers could not have justifiably relied on any alleged misrepresentations by seller in the residential property disclosure form.

KEY WORDS: Political subdivision; immunity; official capacity; clerk of courts; governmental function; Civ.R. 12(B)(6); motion to dismiss.

Appellant filed a civil complaint against the Cuyahoga County Clerk of Courts alleging improper handling of a criminal complaint. The trial court granted defendant's Civ.R. 12(B)(6) motion to dismiss; the motion to dismiss was properly granted because county-defendant is immune.

108834 JUVENILE COURT DIVISION F CIVIL C.P.-JUV, DOM, PROBATE
IN RE Z.J.

Affirmed.

Sean C. Gallagher, P.J., Kathleen Ann Keough, J., and Michelle J. Sheehan, J., concur.

KEY WORDS: Permanent custody; parental rights; incarcerated; father; due process; continuance; abuse of discretion; ineffective assistance of counsel.

Affirmed the trial court's decision awarding permanent custody of the child to the children services agency and terminating the parental rights of father. Father, who had been repeatedly incarcerated and was in prison at the time of the permanent custody hearing, failed to establish that he was denied due process, that the trial court abused its discretion in denying his motion for continuance, or that he received ineffective assistance of counsel.
