A map of Cleveland, Ohio, showing various neighborhoods. The city of Cleveland is highlighted in red. Surrounding neighborhoods are color-coded: yellow (Cleveland Hills), blue (Shaker Heights, Pepper Pike), green (Lakewood, Moreland Hills, Valley View, Walton Hills, Oakwood, Glenwillow, Broadview Heights), orange (Berea, Middleburg Heights), and pink (Rocky River, Fairview Park). A large blue text box is overlaid on the map, containing the text "Responses to Questions and Comments through 8/24". Large numbers 7, 6, and 5 are also visible on the map, likely representing council districts.

The screenshot shows the Cuyahoga County Council website. The page title is "2021 Cuyahoga County Districting Commission". Below the title, it says "Get detailed information about the effort to redraw Cuyahoga County's 11 County Council districts." There are three checkmarks indicating values: "Transparent", "Fair", "Open", and "Accountable". A "Contact Forms" button is highlighted with a red arrow, and it contains two links: "Submit a Question or Comment" and "Sign up for Updates". Below this, there is a list of questions to click on for more information, such as "Why do Cuyahoga County's Council districts need to be redrawn?". At the bottom, there is a notice that the districting process must be completed by September 1, 2021, and a statement that the Commission is committed to making the process open, transparent, fair, and accountable.
