Cuyahoga County is proposing to issue bonds in a not-to-exceed amount of $31 million to partially fund renovations and improvements at the Global Center For Health Innovation (formerly known as the Medical Mart) to align the infrastructure and facilities with the objectives of the Huntington Convention Center by expanding the current ballroom on the first floor, improve vertical transportation within the building with stairs and escalators, other various infrastructure and capital improvements, and renovating floors 2-4 (the “Project”).

Financing overview will be presented for the 2022A Economic Development Revenue Bonds to be issued for the project.
