Fake Job Scams

Fake Job Scams are common but there are these are the signs to know so you can avoid working for a scammer. Employers will NEVER:

- Ask you to deposit a check and then send funds -- in any form -- to someone else
- Create a bank or cryptocurrency account to work for them
- Accept or make payments by money wire, retail gift cards or cryptocurrency
- Accept and reship mail or packages

If you come across an employment opportunity that asks you do to do anything mentioned above, it's a scam. Report scams and suspicious employment offers to Scam Squad online or by calling 216-443-7226.
