

2022 Medical Plans At-A-Glance

Not sure what medical plan to choose? Having a hard time understanding the difference between Copays, Deductibles, Out of Pocket Maximums and Premiums? Medical Plans At-A-Glance will provide you with a high-level overview of each of these terms and the amounts for each plan to help you choose the right plan for you and/or your families medical needs.

Deductible: The amount you pay for your healthcare services before your health insurer pays. For example, if you experience an in-patient hospital stay, you pay the amounts below plus any applicable copays before the coinsurance is applied.

MetroHealth Select High Deductible	MetroHealth Select	Medical Mutual SuperMed EPO		Medical Mutual SuperMed PPO

Coinsurance: Your share of the costs of a covered health care service, calculated as a percent of the allowed amount for the service. For example, if you have an MRI or an X-ray, you will be responsible for a portion of the allowed amount—the coinsurance. Your in-network cost share after the deductible has been met is:

Out of Pocket Maximum: The most you will pay for covered services in a plan year. After you pay this amount on deductibles, copayments, and coinsurance, your health plan pays 100% of the costs of covered benefits. This includes both medical services and prescription drugs covered under the plan. This does not include the cost of your monthly premiums.
