Community Conversations on Structural Racism--Sign Up NOW

The Cuyahoga County Citizens' Advisory Council on Equity (CACE) is hosting Community Conversations on Structural Racism to give residents an opportunity to share their experiences with racism and discrimination in Cuyahoga County and discuss the necessary work to help combat inequities. One of the best ways to create change is by beginning at the local level, and your input can help make local policy changes and positively impact you and your community. These sessions will be conducted virtually over Zoom and powered by The Cleveland Foundation's Common Ground platform. You can sign up to participate in one of three sessions and help create change in your community on the CACE Fighting

Supporting Our Vibrant Arts & Culture Community

Arts are a key part of our community--they are crucial to our economy and they are part of the heart and soul of this county. County Executive Armond Budish announced on Friday that $4 million in County CARES funding will be distributed to support Cuyahoga County arts organizations that have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Cuyahoga Arts and Culture will receive $2,664,000 to distribute to arts and culture nonprofits, and Arts Cleveland will receive $1,336,000 to provide funding to individual artists and for-profit creative businesses. This funding will provide some support for larger arts organizations in the county, but is mainly focused on supporting the small

Recycle Your Old Television

Do you have old TVs haunting your house? The Cuyahoga County Solid Waste District is hosting a new television recycling program on October 31, where residents can bring old, unwanted working or non-working televisions to a special recycling event. This is a drive-thru trunk service. The television will be unloaded from your vehicle and residents will stay in their vehicles at all times. A fee of $20 per unit will be charged and appointments are required

7th Annual Employers Workshop

Attention employers and payroll professionals! You're invited to the 7th Annual Employers Workshop, sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Office of Child Support Services. Each of the three free sessions covers a different topic, providing you the tools and resources needed to navigate the child support program. This year the workshop is going virtual and will meet the needs of payroll professionals, human resources and small business owners.
