Cuyahoga County Resources, Services and Information for You

Follow our Step-By-Step Guide to File Your Property Valuation Complaints Online

The Cuyahoga County Board of Revision is accepting complaints challenging property values until March 31, 2022. Residents have the option to file a paper complaint, but there are several advantages to electronically filing a complaint online. Electronically filing your property valuation complaint is easier to track, you can complete and submit your complaint at any time of the day, and you do not need a notary when filing online. To make it easier to file electronically, residents are encouraged to follow our step-by-step online filing guide.

Celebrating Black History Month

February is Black History Month, and during this month we take time to learn about those who have left a lasting legacy in our communities. As part of an ongoing series for Black History Month, we tell the story of George Peake, the first Black settler in Cuyahoga County, and his contributions to our region. Stay tuned to learn more about these important former residents.
