SECTION 1: The term "grievance" shall mean an allegation by a bargaining unit employee that there has been a breach, misinterpretation, discipline, or discharge without just and proper cause, or improper application of this Agreement. It is not intended that the grievance procedure be used to affect changes in the articles of this Agreement nor those matters not covered by this Agreement which are controlled by Ordinances or Resolutions of the Cuyahoga County Council, or by the provisions of federal and/or state laws and/or by the United States or Ohio Constitutions, or by the Charter of Cuyahoga County.

SECTION 2: A grievance under this procedure may be brought by any employee who is in the bargaining unit. Where a group of employees desire to file a grievance involving a situation affecting each employee in the same manner, one (1) employee selected by such group will process the grievance. Any employee may present a grievance and have it adjusted provided the adjustment does not violate this Agreement.

SECTION 3: All grievances must be timely processed at the proper step in the progression in order to be considered a grievance or to be considered at the subsequent step. Any employee may withdraw a grievance at any point by submitting in writing a statement to that effect, or by permitting the time requirements to elapse without further appeal. Any grievance not answered by Management within the stipulated time limits shall be considered to have been answered in the negative and may be appealed to the next step of the grievance procedure.

SECTION 4: The written grievance shall state on the grievance form the specific article and section of this Agreement alleged to have been violated, an explanation of the facts, and the relief requested.

SECTION 5: The time limitations provided for this article may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Working days, as used in this article, shall not include Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

SECTION 7: Each grievance shall be processed in the following manner:

Step 1: IMMEDIATE SUPERVISOR: A grievance shall be reduced to writing by the grievant and presented to the Immediate Supervisor or his designated representative within five (5) working days (Monday through Friday) after the aggrieved party should reasonably have been aware of the occurrence. Step 2: DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC WORKS or DESIGNEE: If the grievance is not thereby resolved, a written copy shall be submitted to the Director of Public Works and/or his designee within ten (10) working days after the Union receives the answer under Step 1. A meeting shall be held between the Director of Public Works and/or his designee, the Union Business Representative, the Chief Steward, and the grievant. Within five (5) working days (Monday through Friday) from the date of the meeting, a written response to the grievance shall be sent to the Union. In the event the time limits are not mutually extended, then the Union shall have the right to move the grievance to the next step.

The Human Resources Deputy Director shall have twenty (20) calendar days from the date of the meeting to respond in writing.

Step 4: ARBITRATION: If the grievance has been properly processed and is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 3, it may be submitted to arbitration by either the Union or the Employer. The right of the Union or the Employer to request arbitration over an unadjusted grievance is thirty (30) calendar days from the date the Employer's answer is received by the Union under Step 3 in the grievance procedure and any grievance not submitted within such period shall be deemed settled on the basis of the last answer given by the Employer.

SECTION 8: Within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the Step 3 answer, the Union shall notify the Human Resources Deputy Director of Employee & Labor Relations and/or his designee in writing of its intent to appeal the grievance to arbitration. If the Union and the Employer fail to agree upon an Arbitrator in five (5) working days, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service shall then be requested to submit a panel of seven (7) Arbitrators to each party. Upon receiving the list, each party will strike names alternately until reduced to one (1), said being the Arbitrator in said dispute.

SECTION 9: The Arbitrator shall limit his decision strictly to the interpretation, application, or enforcement of the specific articles and sections of this Agreement, and he shall be without power or authority to render any decision which shall add to, subtract from or modify in any way, the provisions of this Agreement or to pass upon issues governed by law or make an award in conflict with law.

SECTION 10: The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties.

SECTION 2: If either party desires to modify, amend, or terminate this Agreement, it shall give written notice of such intent no earlier than one hundred twenty (120) calendar days prior to the termination date of this Agreement.
